1. A growing conflict is reported between Marshal Rokossovsky and the Politburo of the Polish Communist Party. It is a result of Rokossovsky's belief that a strong Titoist current exists in the Party. The Politburo denies this premise. As a result, Polish Communists fear a widespread purge. It is believed that the recent recall of Marian Maszkowski*, Polish Ambassador to Russia held by Rokossovsky to be one of the staunchest Russian supporters, was related to this conflict.

* [REDACTED] Comment: Now Vice-Minister in charge of Army Political Affairs.
